

The Gaza Strip Problem

There are 2,200,000 Palestinians living in the Gaza Strip, the majority of whom are Muslim Arabs. Hamas rules in the Gaza Strip. Its total number of members was estimated at 80,000. Hamas is a Palestinian organization that has been internationally classified as a terrorist organization.

Hamas' declared goal is to destroy the state of Israel.

With the terrorist attack on Israel by the radical Islamic Hamas on October 7, 2023, a new war has begun in the Middle East, which means the largest mass murder of Jews since the Holocaust, with 1,182 fatalities. Hamas has taken 251 hostages as bargaining chip for prisoner exchanges, which is a violation of international law. Hostage-taking and the kidnapping of civilians are prohibited under international law and constitute war crimes.

The only simple question left for rationally thinking individuals is: What have the remaining 2,120,000 Palestinians done against Hamas? Nothing!

And the entire world is whining because Israel is fighting Hamas, which is cowardly hiding behind the rest of the Palestinians.

Hamas could be easily located, full of aid supplies, while the rest of the Palestinians are starving. It is therefore up to the remaining Palestinians, who outnumber Hamas by a factor of 26.5, to eradicate Hamas.

On Saturday, May 26, 2025, an unannounced pro-Palestine demonstration took place in Bern with thousands of participants. The demonstration marched close to the Bern synagogue, which worried the Jewish community. The Bern cantonal police protected the synagogue and embassies from possible riots. The Jewish community is calling for more support, as it feels increasingly threatened.

The Jewish Albert Einstein (1879-1955) said on this subject: The world is not threatened by people who are evil, but by those who allow evil.

Left-wing brain-amputated demonstrators shout out unrealistic nonsense, rabble against the police, steal and damage general and private property. From the Jordan River to the sea, they want a free Palestine, i.e. all of Israel, the West Bank and whatever else they can think of in the future with the aim of dominating the whole world!
