

SVP, Party of the middle class?

Internet research

The SVP consists of subsidized farmers (lower class) and multi-billionaires (upper class) and calls itself the party of the middle class. In 2021, the federal government made a total of around 2.8 billion francs in direct payments to agriculture. A vegetable producer from the canton of Zurich received over half a million direct payments in 2017.

Christoph Blocher is the son of a pastor. He lives in Herrliberg and at Rhäzüns Castle. His fortune is estimated at 16 billion Swiss francs. He studied law. In 1969 he joined the legal department of Ems-Chemie AG, where he was promoted to CEO in 1973. The company ran into difficulties because of the poor economy. Blocher, who was entrusted with the sale by two of Oswald's sons, ultimately bought the company himself after he said he could not find a buyer. The company then recovered quickly. The advantageous price, which only corresponded to around a quarter of the company's intrinsic value, as well as the secrecy of the buyer's true identity from the other members of the heir family led to the suspicion that Blocher had secretly and inexpensively taken possession of the company thanks to his position of trust.

The SVP has rented an entire ice hockey stadium for its 2023 election campaign. 4,000 enthusiastic members and supporters gathered in the Swiss Life Arena in Zurich. All party celebrities were present. This also applies to former Federal Councilor Christoph Blocher and his daughter, National Councilor Magdalena Martullo-Blocher. The two sat on a hay wagon as they were chauffeured into the arena.

Summa summarum: Anyone who votes for the SVP party again in 2023 has irreparable brain damage because they are too stupid to understand that multi-billionaires (upper class) are calling the shots and farmers (lower class) would have gone bankrupt for decades without subsidies.

Apropos Christoph Blocher, Pastors-Sohn, Multi-billionaire, versus Abuse in the church

Priests have shamelessly exploited the trust. Catholic clerics and members of religious orders have committed at least 1,002 cases of sexual abuse in Switzerland in the past 70 years. This is shown by the first analysis of secret archives of Roman Catholic institutions, carried out by the University of Zurich, which describes these figures as just the tip of the iceberg.

And what are the pope, the cardinals and the bishops doing about it?

They keep quiet about such criminal acts and transfer these sex hormone-controlled priests to another community, where they continue their criminal activities as they please, i.e., fuck their way through new minors.

Celibacy versus hormones like testosterone

Anyone who wants to become a Catholic priest should be surgically changed into a eunuch and then given medication to become a sexual abstainer for life. The positive thing about it and for control purposes is that they sing in the highest octaves. Or you can reintroduce customs from the past. In the 10th century there was little Christianity in the Vatican: it was the time of pornocracy between the enthronement of Sergius III. in 904 and the deposition of John XII. in 963. It was about power and influence. Two mistresses also play a crucial role. When Charlemagne died in January 814, succession struggles began within the Carolingian dynasty. The stabilizing influence of the Roman Empire in Italy and the Vatican came to an end and a vacuum emerged. As a result, things in the Vatican were not very Christian: Popes fought for power and influence on worldly decisions. Powerful Italian families tried to bring candidates to the Holy See who were close to them. Between 904 and 963, the so-called pornocracy reigned in the Vatican. It was the time between the enthronement of Sergius III. as Pope in 904 and the deposition of John XII. in 963. During this time, the popes were under the direct influence of two mistresses, who were also mother and daughter: they were Theodora and Marozia. Marozia is said to be the mistress of Pope Sergius III. have been. She was the mother of the future Pope John XI. and the father is said to be Pope Ser-gius III. have been. Marozia is also said to have ordered the murder of John X, who had been brought into office by her mother Theodora. Marozia is said to have ensured that her favorite Leo VI. became pope in 928.

Or how about:

There was a priest once,
who masturbated like a monkey,
he rubbed and rubbed and rubbed and rolled,
and even hit it with the Bible,
if he didn't want going come.
